Headline:
Rain and drizzle on Monday but staying very mild.

This Evening and Tonight:
Generally rather cloudy this evening, but a sunny end to the day in the south and some bright spells elsewhere. Patchy drizzle at first in the northwest, but otherwise largely dry overnight. Some rain reaching the west later. Mild. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Monday:
Cloud and outbreaks of rain and drizzle in the west quickly spreading east. Remaining largely cloudy with some pockets of drizzle through the afternoon. Feeling warm in any late brightness. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Spells of rain or heavy showers, these interspersed by some drier and brighter interludes. Unseasonably warm by day and mild overnight, but turning colder by Thursday. Very windy at times.
